In my Action Memorandum 336, dated 18 December 1963, I asked the CIA Training Selection Board to assume as one of its first duties the responsibility for recommending to me procedures whereby the Midcareer Program will be effective on a continuing basis. I believe sufficient time has now elapsed since the Board's formation for Career Services to have started midcareer programming for their personnel. Therefore, I ask that you give me a status report, together with your recommendations, on the Midcareer Training Program and that this report be forwarded to me no later than 1 May 1964.
